

I have telephone service for my own personal use, and not for telemarketers to push their wares and services, which I did not solicit. It has been a pleasure since the NJ "Do Not Call" went into effect. Please do not subject us to these annoying vultures who do nothing but aggravate us. It is an invasion of MY privacy.